

THE JOB DESCRIPTIONS OF A Sunday School Teacher

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS: As a Sunday School Teacher your primary goal is to communicate the Bible to students in a way that they can engage with and apply to their everyday life. A win look like students remembering Biblical stories and truths, so they can apply them to their lives.

ACCOUNTABILITY:

Report to the Youth Director

QUALIFICATIONS

- You love God.
- You care about students.
- You have a passion to learn about scripture and have a general understanding of it.
- You complete a background check.
- You can commit to the Sunday School Teaching Year (Mid-September to Mid-May).

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Prepare and give a lesson to students on Sunday mornings. (9:30am-10:45am)
- Communicate with Youth Director about scheduling or other conflicts.
- Create a safe space to ask and talk about the hard questions and paradoxes the Bible brings up. You don't have to have the answer just be willing to have a meaningful discussion.

POSSIBLE POSITIONS

- Middle School Teacher
- High School Teacher
- Substitute Teacher